Important Definitions	Account Eligibility: Health Savings Account can be opened if you have a qualified High Deductible Health Plan. Eligibility is not dependent on whether you are employed, self-employed or unemployed. You can have no other health coverage; cannot be enrolled in Medicare; and cannot be claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return. Ask a branch representative for a copy of the HSA Quick Reference Guide or Health Savings Account FAQ Brochure for more information on Health Savings Accounts. Annual Percentage Yield (APY): The amount of interest paid to you by the bank on your account during the year. Average Ledger Balance: Calculated by adding the ending balance from each day during the month and dividing the result by the number of days in the month. Eligibility: The customer is responsible for determining their eligibility and allowable annual HSA contribution and whether their qualified medical expenses are eligible for reimbursement from their HSA. Encourage the customer to consult a tax professional to determine their eligibility and for guidance on qualified distributions. eStatement: An electronic version of your statement provided via the Internet. eStatements are available to Digital Banking customers and may be provided daily, weekly, monthly or quarterly depending on your statement cycle date. Must maintain an active Digital Banking account to receive eStatements. Health Savings Account (HSA): An interest-bearing deposit account specifically designed for customers with qualified high deductible health plans (HDHP). This tax-free checking account allows customers to save money to pay for current or future health care expenses like doctor visits, prescriptions, dental care, and vision expenses. Health Savings Accounts also provide customers with the potential to build a savings for future health care costs. HSA funds do not need to be spent each year and can be built up to pay for future qualified expenses. High Deductible Healthcare Plan (HDHP): A health insurance plan with lower premiums and higher deductibles than a traditional health plan. Being covered by an HDHP is also a requirement for having a health savings account. Some HDHP plans also offer additional "wellness" benefits, provided before a deductible is paid. Insufficient Funds: When you do not have enough funds in your account to cover an item. The item is declined as insufficient funds and returned unpaid. Interest Rate: The percentage of interest paid on an interest-bearing account, such as savings, CDs and some checking accounts. International Service Assessment: When applicable, this charge will appear on your statement as "Int Fee." Refer to the Personal Products Deposit Account Disclosure for additional details. Item: Any check, ACH, withdrawal, debit card purchase, funds transfer, fee, charge or other amount that is added to or subtracted from your account. Non-Washington Trust Bank ATM Fee: When applicable, this charge will appear on your statement as "[ATM Location] W/D SVC". Overdraft: When there are not enough available funds in your account to cover an item. We authorize and pay the item and overdraw your account. Refund: A payment of a sum of money back to your account. Service Charge: Assessed to your deposit account for a service or product. Can be monthly, quarterly, annually, periodic or a one-time charge. Statement Cycle: Generally, a thirty- or thirty-one-day period. Tiered Rate Structure: A tiered rate account is a checking or savings account that pays interest in increasingly higher amounts as the account balance increases. Waived: When a service charge or fee is not charged to your account.

Please refer to the Personal Products Deposit Account Disclosure for full disclosure details.
