President

About

Kevin Blair is President of Washington Trust Bank. At $11 billion in assets, Washington Trust is the largest privately owned community bank in the Northwest, with more than forty offices in Washington, Oregon, and Idaho.

Kevin has over 25 years of banking experience, with expertise in commercial and real estate lending, private banking, and cash management. Kevin joined Washington Trust in 2004 as a Vice President and Relationship Manager in Bellevue, Washington. He has since served in a variety of roles, including as Team Leader for Commercial Banking in Seattle and Regional President for Western Washington and Oregon. Prior to his promotion to President, he served as the bank's Chief Lending Officer.

Kevin is active in a number of community organizations. For more than 20 years, he has served on the Board of Directors of the Seattle Aquarium Society and has volunteered as a teacher for Junior Achievement of Washington.

Kevin received a bachelor's degree in economics from Santa Clara University and a Master of Business Administration in finance and management from Seattle University. He is also a graduate of the Pacific Coast Banking School at the University of Washington and earned an Executive Leadership Certificate from the Wharton School of Business, Leadership Lab.
